Youtube Cinderella And Four Knights Official Trailer English

I do feel as if he's slowly noticing Ha Won more and more but he's still a bit oblivious to his own feelings and since he's been Hye Ji's black knight for who knows how long he probably feels that he can't back out of the position just like that.. I don't think that jiwoon actually likes hye jin in a completely romantic sense, I feel as if he somehow has got it in his head that he has to take care of her, as if she's this fragile little piece of glass that can be broken easily.
